

program draft*

Thursday, Apr 25 - - - Pikk street 20
18.00-21.00	welcoming drink
Friday, Apr 26 - - - Telliskivi hall
9.00-9.40	registration
9.40-10.00	conference opening
10.00-11.40	Nikolina Bobic War, violence and control: De/re-modernisation and de/re-territorialisation through infrastructure Eric Le Bourhis «Not any of us in the Republic is prepared»: The response of Riga city planners to new soviet civil defence norms in 1956-1957 Laura Lieto (Un)restricted access: The US militarization in the formation of Naples city-region after WWII Beate Feldmann Eellend Post-military landscape in the Baltic Sea Area Ken Sterrett, Chris Karelse The divided city: Spatial segregation beyond the "peace-walls". An investigation into the spatial segregation patterns in the city of Belfast
11.40-12.00	coffee break
12.00-13.40	Nancy Couling The military space of the ocean James Montgomery Wollen Architects of a would-be state: Lithuanian publicists on the demographics & economics of a Lithu-Letto federation, 1914-1918 Nisha Shah Desiring walls: Frontier forts and the objective of sovereign impermeability Dylan Craig Something old out of Africa: Interstitial war as a resurgent global phenomenon
13.40-15.00	lunch
16.00-17.40	Parastou Saberi Space, everyday life and the modalities of (neo-)colonial pacification Suzanne Harris-Brandts Extraterritorial appropriation: Landscape's instrumentality in the conflicting land claims of the occupied West Bank Neil Balan "Society's infrastructures must be defended!" On sapper epistemology and epidemiological conceptions of contemporary warfare Matthew Bolton From minefields to minespace: Landmines, autonomous armed robots and dynamic military enclosure
17.40-18.00	coffee break
18.00-19.20	keynote lecture Stephen Graham Cities under siege: The new military urbanism
19.30	conference dinner (for registered participants)
Saturday, Apr 27 - - - Telliskivi hall
9.40-11.00	keynote lecture Steven Flusty ...title to be confirmed...
11.00-12.00	poster session Antonia Dika, Mladen Stilinovic, Bruno De Meulder, Bieke Cattoor, Hans Jungerius, Niku Khaleghi, Clenn Kustermans, Omid Kia + local students + coffee break
12.00-13.40	Marisol Vidal At war with concrete Esra Kahveci The Pentagon: An unintentional influence on post-war urbanism Kristo Vesikansa Brutalism in wilderness: Finnish military bases in the 1960s and 70s Açalya Alpan Tuzuner The story of the town walls of Antalya Aisling Shannon, Paul Bower Building on sites of conflict: Lessons for the future(s) of the Maze Prison development in Northern Ireland
13.40-15.00	lunch
15.00-16.40	Theodoros Dounas Some special cases of boundaries: Territorial gradients and space as a weapon Mirjana Ristic Sniper alley: Military urbanism of the besieged Sarajevo Jim Roche Jihad, holy war and 'urbicide': Destruction and construction in the occupied territories Gary A. Boyd, Denis Linehan 'Invisible from here on in': The space of the bunker, modernity's dark mirror
16.40-17.00	coffee break
17.00-19.00	Marjut Kirjakka Military aspects in urban planning: Finland in the 18th and 19th centuries Özlem Arzu Azer The tunnel warfare as the secret of the victory of the Vietnam War Rose Tzalmone Remnants of military urbanism: The Atlantikwall as a forgotten 'intervention' Bilge Ar Urban Transformation of a capital under occupation: Istanbul, after World War I Johan Eellend From soldier barracks to summer idylls
19.00-19.30	conference closing
Sunday, Apr 28
9.30-->	excursions